New Xulon Title States, 'God is Love,' What that Means to Readers Tyson declares a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity made possible through grace

MAITLAND, FL— The story behind Zadia Brown Tyson's book began in her backyard. After pulling weeds for a while, the author realized the weeds actually dominated the grass. One morning, the Holy Spirit spoke to her inner spirit, saying, "This is the way sin is in the life of the Christian." Eventually, the Holy Spirit instructed that she should write about how sin in the life of the Christian impedes his or her spiritual growth. Tyson's new book, From Salvation to Sanctification; Then Eternal Life ($24.99, paperback, 9781628397819; $9.99, e-book, 9781628397826) delves into the wonderful reality that, although all of mankind has been born into sin, each person has been lovingly granted the opportunity to spend all of eternity with God.

"[I hope that readers will gain] the truth and that is, God is love and that He loves them," states the author. "He loves them so much that He allowed His Son, Jesus Christ, to die on the cross for their sins, so that they can be saved. After salvation, God teaches them in His word how and what to do in order to live holy and righteous lives before He and the world."

Zadia Brown Tyson is a born-again Christian that loves the Lord. The author is a wife, mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, cousin and friend, but most of all, a child of God. She currently teaches the median, adult Sunday school class at her church, which she has taught for the past thirty years.

Xulon Press, a division of Salem Communications, is the world's largest Christian self-publisher, with more than 8,000 titles published to date.
